

Grayling Man Killed In Work Mishap

A Grayling man was fatally injured in an industrial accident Monday morning while working at Van's Building Center, 400 State St. in Grayling.

According to city police officer Robert Butzin, Donald Hale, 51, Wilcox Bridge Road, was killed instantly when roof trusses being raised toppled off the forks of a lift truck and struck the victim in the head. Hale was reportedly on top of and helping to stabilize the load while the trusses were being loaded onto a flatbed truck when the mishap occurred.

The accident took place shortly before 10:00 a.m. April 20, 1981. A seven year resident of Grayling, Hale was active in community affairs, including the leader dogs for the blind program. He was president of the Grayling Lions Club.

Jaycees Seek Local Support For AuSable Canoe Race

Grayling Area Jaycees members are calling on local businesses seeking support for the 1981 World's Championship AuSable Marathon Canoe Race. Advertising space in the Race Program Book, a highly successful and popular publication last year, is being sold to raise over $5500 necessary to meet this year's prize money goal.

This year, the public also has an opportunity to help support this World Class Canoe event. The Jaycees are offering Patron Ads in the AuSable Race Program Book to individuals at $5.00 per ad. This is an opportunity to show your support for an event which has been a major sporting and entertainment attraction in the Grayling Area for 33 years. The Jaycees ask that you consider the fun and enjoyment you've had during previous year's races, and can look forward to again at the race this July 24th, Friday evening.

Donations (Tax Deductible) to the Canoe Race Prize Fund help support an event which is truly an amazing world class endurance contest, but has been presented to the public at No Charge for 33 years. The race is a major attraction to Northern Michigan Tourists and helps bring thousands of visitors to the Grayling area and AuSable River Valley.

Individuals can support the race, with a program book patron ad by sending a $5.00 check, made payable to "Grayling Jaycee Canoe Race Committee", to P.O. Box 709 Grayling, Mi. 49738. Businesses should contact a Jaycee representative, or the Chamber of Commerce at 348-2921.

For more information contact: Steve Southard, P.O. Box 709, Grayling, Mi. 49738. 348-9773 or 348-5844.

Set Clocks Ahead Saturday Night

Remember to reset your clocks Saturday night at bedtime because at 2:00 a.m. Sunday morning, April 26, 1981, we will make our annual conversion to Daylight Savings Time. Set your clock ahead one hour.

This is the day most folks lose an hour's sleep which they never seem to get back in the fall.

Michigan will remain on Daylight Savings Time until the last weekend in October.

Benefit Dinner for Bielski Family Saturday

A Memorial Benefit Dinner on behalf of the George Bielski family will be held this Saturday evening, April 25, 1981, at Auman's House of Catering on Millikin Road.

Proceeds will be donated to the family of Mrs. George (Donna) Bielski, who passed away April 17.

The all-you-can-eat spaghetti dinner will be served from 4:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Cost is $3.50 for adults and $1.50 for children 12 and under.

Economic Cuts Effect DNR Here

Since the severe economical situation has developed with the State Government, various DNR field units have had to make cuts in services and Hartwick Pines is no exception. Maintenance and personnel budgets have been reduced which will affect the operations of various facilities and the rehiring of seasonal rangers.

The facilities at the Bright and Glory Lakes area have been removed and the area has been closed to vehicle traffic. Both docks, which were scheduled to be replaced, have been removed. The pilings and deck supports were decaying so badly that they presented a safety hazard. Both docks were built around the early 1950's and required constant repairing. They are scheduled for replacement sometime in the future.

Visiting hours at the Interpretive Center and Lumber Museum will also be shortened.

Easter Police Activity Termed 'Routine'

Despite an upsurge in traffic from Easter weekend travelers, Crawford County Sheriff Joe White said police activity was routine during the past week. Deputies responded to 73 complaints, including eleven reports of breaking and entering.

A B & E occurred at a trailer on Galloway Trail in South Branch Township where a canoe was reported stolen by owners who were visiting for the weekend. A residence on County Road 612 owned by Miles H. Seeley of Royal Oak was broken into when burglars forced open a door to gain entry. No estimate of stolen goods was available. Cable Broadcasting equipment was reported stolen in a breaking and entering at a cable TV building on Tower Truck Trail. The incident was reported by an employee who said entry was gained by forcing open a door.

All three incidents are under investigation by sheriff's deputies.

Firemen were called to the scene of two fires, including a fire at Wakeley Auto Parts on Whirlpool Road last Friday where tires reportedly caught fire. Firefighters were also called to extinguish a chimney fire at the Lee Crull residence on West Legner Trail on Sunday.

Deputies cited drivers for seven traffic violations during the period, three DUI arrests were made and one personal injury mishap was investigated. Four property damage accidents were logged, one involving a car/deer collision. Nine larcenies were reported and six incidents of malicious destruction were investigated.

Reports of food stamp embezzlement, wreckless use of firearms, forgery, unlawful entries, liquor law violations and a myriad of other complaints kept lawmen on the go during the last week.

The ambulance was called out on several occasions.

Travelogue Series to End April 30th

On Thursday evening, April 30, the Grayling Community School Program will bring to an end their 8th Annual Travel and Adventure Series with a full color documentary of the countries of Guatemala and Yucatan.

"Mysterious Mayaland" will be narrated alive and in person by nationally recognized lecturer-photographer Romain Wilhelmssen.

This final travelogue will be presented in Grayling's Joseph Stripe Auditorium with show time set for 7:30 p.m. Doors will open at 6:45 and tickets will be available at the door.

At the present time, the Grayling Community School Office is running slightly behind budget predictions in terms of this year's series. It is hoped that residents of the Grayling and surrounding areas will attend this final show of the season and push the budgetary figures into the black.

Hatchery Committee Advances Preservation Plan

by Joe Schrader

The Grayling Fish Hatchery Preservation Committee is moving toward its goal of saving the historic local facility with renewed vigor after visiting a similar, successful preservation effort in Mecosta County.

Committee members Vid Roe, Bob Smock, Jr., and C of C Executive Duanne Swift toured the former Paris Fish Hatchery, located north of Big Rapids, where the county took over the site and restored it to a major tourist attraction for the area. The restoration program began in 1973 when Mecosta County acquired the former DNR facility and developed it into a self-supporting tourist park in just three years.

According to Vid Roe, the park is administered and operated by the county's Parks & Recreation Committee, who maintain fish of various species in the ponds and raceways. Roe said scores of visitors are attracted to the site to feed and view the fish and wildowl that reside at the former fish hatchery because of its semblance to their natural habitat. Roe said the park employs a full-time staff and was established in cooperation with DNR Regional office personnel in Roscommon.

"We represent a group of people who naturally came together because of a common interest in preserving part of Grayling's history," says Bob Smock about the efforts of the local preservation committee, which has been active since learning that long-range DNR plans call for closing the local facility altogether. Members last week toured the non-defunct Grayling raceways and ponds, which DNR officials have recently said they will fill and cover over when time and materials permit. The DNR also plans to close the building which now serves as a field office and move across the street, although staffers say those plans are 5-10 years down the road.

The local committee, on the other hand, has a much more ambitious collection of ideas for the site, and have prepared a tentative list of goals and objectives that include tourism and environmental learning possibilities as part of its preservation scheme.

Even mentioned is the long-range possibility of bringing back the now-extinct fresh water sailfish, the grayling, which years ago plied the waters of the AuSable and for whom the town was named.

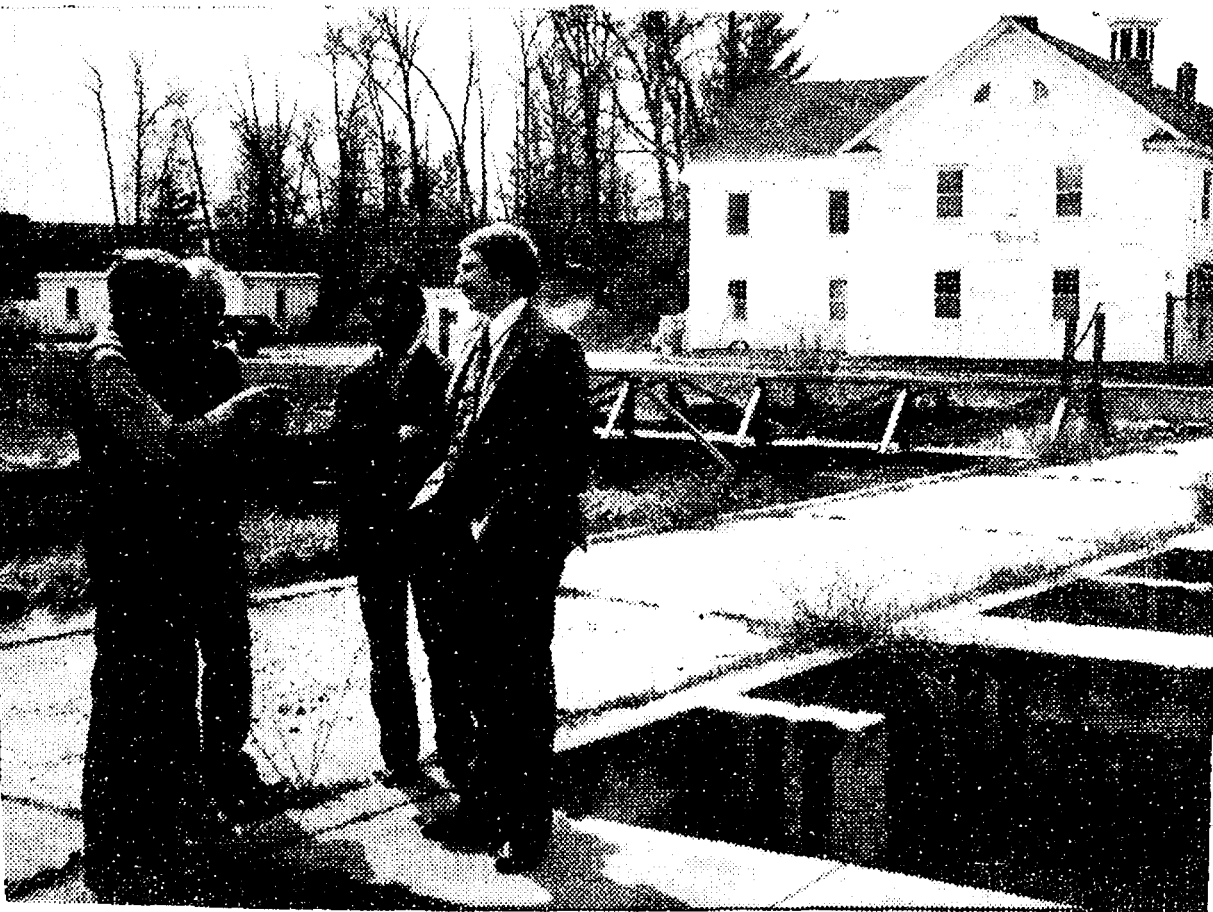

The DNR has acknowledged with interest the committee's idea, but has said that putting maintenance money into facilities destined for closing (hatching ended for good in 1975), is not consistent with its plans to retire the facility. DNR officials in Roscommon have promised to keep local residents apprised of their plans at the site, and have indicated they will not oppose preservation attempts.

So committee members are moving ahead undaunted with plans that would once again make the hatchery an invigorating part of the Grayling community. Natives recall with nostalgia the days when throngs of visitors toured the site to observe the trophy-sized trout on display.

Swift said calls about the hatchery are received regularly by the Chamber of Commerce staff, who must tell the would-be visitors with regret that the facility is no longer operating.

Historically, the site once served as the Grayling Fish Hatchery Club when the property was deeded to the local sports group by Rasmus and Margrethe Hanson in 1914. It was sold to the State of Michigan in 1926 for $10,000, which led to the start up of the DNR fish hatchery operation. For years the state raised trout for stocking both the AuSable and Manistee Rivers before it was closed as a hatchery in the mid-60's. A few northern pike were raised a number of years

Helicopter Pilots Return For NOE Flying Tests

Camp Grayling Release

As the robin is the harbinger of spring in Michigan the cacophony of sound permeating the air reminds Grayling area citizens that with spring the Guard helicopters have also returned.

After wintering at such areas as Grand Ledge, Michigan; Columbus, Ohio and Shelbyville, Indiana the journey to Grayling is a welcome change for all the itinerant pilots and their machines. The excellent hills and vales around Camp Grayling gives the pilots the variety of terrain that is necessary to hone the difficult flying skills required for Nap-of-the-Earth (NOE) flight. We all hope that the need for our pilots to perform these evasive techniques will not come to pass. But being cognizant of the fact that ours is an uncertain world and all soldiers (like firemen) must be able to respond in an emergency on a moment's notice. Pilots from throughout the Midwest plan to increase their skills at Camp Grayling as often as possible.

NOE flying challenges the abilities of the pilot. They must master simultaneously such skills as map reading at 90 miles per hour, aircraft control close to trees all in wind conditions and obstacle avoidance at high speeds. NOE training insures the pilot that his mission can be accomplished in a hostile environment against a sophisticated enemy. An enemy who uses heat seeking missiles and radar detection. Being involved in a training environment at Grayling where mistakes can easily be corrected is part of the aviators trainings.

Accidentally deviating from the prescribed courses over the military reservation can be corrected easily. Crossing into the wrong area or terrain feature in a war zone may have drastic results. The majority of our pilots (approximately 85%) are Vietnam veterans whose experience in combat is a valuable asset for this nation. It provides us the fast mobilization and deployment overseas of aviation units that may be required in any future conflict. Experienced, professional with many hours of schooling to their credit they strive to maintain perfection in their flying skills thru repetitive exercises.

The Camp Grayling aviation staff tries to insure that the goals of the aviation units are met without creating a problem for other groups in training here or the local citizens. An extensive briefing is conducted to clearly define the limitations and restrictions required while flying at Camp Grayling.

NOE flight routes are planned and established over uninhabited areas of military use land. NOE routes and areas are clearly depicted on maps of the Grayling area. These are discussed in depth with pilots. Every effort is made to prevent problems. However, pilots sometimes become disoriented and stray off the NOE training areas. When this situation occurs corrective action is taken. But we all know that flying at 90 miles per hour a considerable distance will be traversed prior to the realization that an error has occurred.

The Grayling Kiwanis Trade Show has been cancelled for this year. According to a spokesman for the Kiwanians, the Trade Show had to be cancelled after the date change because several of the dealers involved could not attend the show due to prior commitments.

Cole Porter Musical Set for Grayling High School

The 1934 Broadway Musical smash hit "Anything Goes" by Cole Porter is scheduled for production at the Grayling High School Auditorium on May 7, 8 and 9, 1981. The musical is being staged by the Grayling High School Players under the direction of Community School Director Howard Taylor. Tickets for the production are presently on sale and can be purchased at the Grayling Pharmacy in downtown Grayling or by mail from the Grayling Community School Office. Admission to performances is $2.50 and all seats are reserved.

how Billy Crocker, played by Tim Taylor, having neither a ticket, cash nor a passport in his pocket, accepts the aid of a bashful, self-effacing clergyman among the passengers. John Watkins plays the role of Moonface, a shy preacher, who turns out to be no person at all, but a dangerous fugitive from the law, escaping to Europe in disguise. The hilarity goes into high gear when Crocker discovers that the passport he has borrowed belongs to Public Enemy No. 1, who missed the boat. This forces him to dash in and out of a series of disguises: a sailor, a

Deny County Funds Are Used for Dial-A-Ride

By Jack Mason

"I want to stress, right here, that no County funds are used in any part for salaries or allied expenses in our use of Green Thumb people at Crawford County Public Transit," stated Chester Johnston, Director of C.C.P.T. Johnston made the statement late last week in answer to an apparent misunderstanding concerning the Federally funded Green Thumb Program.

Johnston explained that Green Thumb is funded and administered by the United States Department of Labor, Senior Community Service Employment Program, in Washington D.C. The purpose of the Program, simply put, is to utilize the abilities of Senior American Citizens.

Federal and State regulations require that no discrimination in Public Service hiring be shown based on Religion, Race, Color, National Origin, Age, Sex or Handicap. "There are no regulations which limit employment opportunities to Senior Citizens living in a specific designated area," said Johnston. "Federal law applies equally to all Americans and Michigan law applies equally to all State residents."

"The limiting factors are practical only. As far as we are concerned, these factors are experience, willingness to learn and ability to dependably perform required duties on a regular basis."

Johnston emphasized one last point. "Actually, come right down to it, the Green Thumb Program saves the County taxpayers money." Our demand for service increases monthly and we have needed more employees almost every quarter. Green Thumb funds a large portion of these positions, and we are able to expand and increase our service without costing the taxpayers one cent."

GHS Students See 'Politics In Action'

by Joe Schrader

A pair of Grayling High seniors arrived back in Grayling with a greater understanding and respect for the U.S. system of government following a week-long Washington Workshop in the nation's capitol.

Paula Dosch and Sue Diedrich were among 100 students from around the country who participated in the government training program from March 22 to March 29.

Next month, two high school juniors, Jane Stamm and Bonnie Keusch will attend Operation Bentley, a government training session held on the campus of Olivet College. According to GHS instructor Howard Lehti, students chosen to attend Operation Bentley receive a full scholarship covering tuition, room and board. One college credit is earned for completing the program.

A full itinerary greeted Sue and Paula at the Washington Workshop, like visits to watch government bodies in action and meetings with top congressional leaders. "I came home more hopeful about our economy because of the optimistic atmosphere that exists in Washington," Sue observed.

Warning

Weapons firing will be conducted at Camp Grayling during the period 27-30 Apr 81 and 1-3 May 81.

Firing will be going on in the following range areas:

The Small Arms ranges located west of Lake Margrethe, north of Howe Rd, east of the gas pipeline and south of Portage Creek.

The Range 30 Complex located north of North Down River Rd, east of Jones Lake Rd, south of County Rd 612 and west of Damon Truck Trail.

The Range 40 Complex located north of County Rd 612, east of Guthrie Lake, south of East State Rd 618 and west of County Rd 697.

The ranges will be closed during the period 27-30 Apr 81 and 1-3 May 81 and all persons are warned to stay out of the areas identified.

served about her capitol experience. Paula said she was struck by the complexity of the governmental systems. "There's so much going on all the time," she said, "I found it very interesting."

Their schedule called for daily visits to Capitol Hill, discussions with Speaker of the House, Thomas "Tip" O'Neil, a chat with Congressman Bob Davis of Michigan's 11th District, and sessions led by numerous leaders from the senate and house.

The workshop participants witnessed a U.S. Senate debate involving Vice-president George Bush, Ted Kennedy and Howard Baker. Evenings were spent learning parliamentary procedures in mock committee meetings where students prepared and debated legislative proposals. Both Paula and Sue were on the Education Committee.

What may have impressed the two most was Washington's concern over the Soviet Union's troop buildup on the borders of Poland. "The concern about the European nobleman with false whiskers clipped hurriedly from a passing passenger and a Chinese until the whole ship become a madhouse of fun. In the end he gets his reward, an elusive romance.

Some of Cole Porter's most impish and melodious songs are in "Anything Goes". Among them are the title song, "Anything Goes", and an exuberant Porterish version of an old spiritual, "Blow Gabriel, Blow". Porter matched his nimblest lyrics to his catchiest rhythms in two other tunes which rank with his immortal "Night and Day"—"You're the Top" and "I Get a Kick Out of You". Two other infectious gay ditties that have been Hit Parade numbers for close to 50 years are "All Through the Night" and "It's Delovely".

Written originally under the title of "Bon Voyage" by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse, and dealing with passengers on a liner that encounters a disaster at sea, the show was hastily rewritten into its present form under the title of "Anything Goes" by another renowned pair of collaborators, Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, when just before rehearsals began a very real marine disaster that shocked the nation made a comedy on the subject inappropriate.

The rewritten version was a huge success and ran for 420 performances in New York when it was first presented in 1934—a tremendous hit in those depression days. Since that time the show has been continually presented in outdoor operetta seasons, and has twice been made into movies, once in 1936 and again in 1956—both times with Bing Crosby as the roistering playboy who sails for Europe on a sudden impulse without a ticket, a passport or much pocket money. A revival in New York ran for seven months in 1962.

But people sit on fences. And faithful puppies never question.

Our children, trusting the love and wisdom of their parents, respect even our indecision.

But the moral and religious growth of every child is deeply influenced by his parents' commitment of their own lives to God.

We have outlived the day when fathers and mothers sent their children to Sunday

Juvenile delinquency is the aftermath of fence-sitting!

From Our Corner ...

Will the dream of three men come true?

That question applies to the efforts of Bobby Smock, Vid Roe and Duane Swift, Chamber Manager, to get the release of the abandoned Fish Hatchery here from the Department of Natural Resources, and renovate it into a tourist attraction.

With the help of other citizens in the area the three are going ahead in their endeavor, and hope that the DNR will see fit to release the deed to the property as they did Paris, Michigan so that the local people there could make their abandoned Fish Hatchery into a thriving tourist attraction at the present.

A group from here visited the Paris attraction some time ago and learned quite a bit how they could renovate the one here...

We were told that already people here are telling the group they have artifacts that they will donate to the museum that depict the living in the area when it was first settled, and they said they expect much more...if their dream becomes a reality...

A spokesman also said that when they are given the go ahead sign they will need many volunteers in different aspects of restoring the ponds and building...

There are a few major hurdles to get over at the present...but, if the DNR will consent to the transaction, we believe it could become a major tourist attraction for Grayling and the area...something we need here since the moving of the Fred Bear Museum to Florida, and it would coincide with Hartwick Pines State Park for those who are interested in the lumbering days in Northern Michigan...

Following is the groups Goals and Objectives for the renovation...

Grayling Hatchery Preservation Committee Goals & Objectives

- Preservation
- Fish Hatchery Site
 - Historical aspects of trout fishing in Crawford County
 - Kids' fishing site on East Branch
 - Artifacts
- Early (1800) evolution of AuSable as nationally acclaimed trout fishing river
 - Changes effecting depletion of Grayling Trout to present population of Rainbow & Brown Trout
 - Chief Shoppenagons' historical contribution
 - Old river boats, antique fishing equipment, flies, etc.

- Tourist Attraction
- Excellent attraction in the past
 - Stimulate local economy
- Reduce local unemployment
 - Increase traffic for local businesses
- Broaden local tourist attraction base
 - Hartwick Pines
 - Camp Grayling
 - Centralize tourist information center
- Environmental Learning Center
- Educational source for youth and adults
 - Display various species of trout native to AuSable
 - Exhibits, displays, dioramas (environmental aspects)
 - Explore possibility of introducing and displaying German strain of Grayling Trout
 - Available resource center for colleges and universities to conduct research

- Environmental Aspects
- Importance of water quality for trout
- Maintain and expand Green Belt ordinances and building restrictions on river

It sounds like a good idea to us...and we're sure it would help the tourist business for Grayling...

We were talking to a friend Monday morning and he remarked seeing as how you told us you were going to T.C. for Easter in last week's Corner I presume that is all we will read about in this week's issue...we assured him we would not bore him, so all we will say is we spent a very nice Easter with T.J. and Stef and folks, oh yes their black pony is still with them...so there...we hope all our readers enjoyed Easter as much as the bride and I did...

Congratulations and many happy days in retirement to Tom Fallon, Editor of the Bay City Times...

With our envious self, we will close this turkey for this week...have a nice weekend...that cold weather has to leave us some time...

Little Larry McNamara and Sally Schram, are neighborhood playmates. Tuesday morning they were running around in the Schram yard when Sally, age 2 years, with a woman's curiosity, stopped to explore the rock garden pool, which is quite deep, when in she fell. Larry, with quick perception, ran into the Schram house and told Lucile Larson of the situation. At first

The Bible Speaks

from Calvary Baptist Church

David Lee,
Criminal or Man of God?

About midnight Monday, April 13th following 6 hours of kidney dialysis, Pastor David Lee of Liberty Baptist Church in Battle Creek, Michigan was ushered into a jail cell and heard the sharp reverberant clang of that steel door echoing down those criminal filled cells of the Calhoun County Jail. Lee's crime was insisting that the State of Michigan treat his school as an internal part of his church and not a separate entity.

State Senator John Welborn stated it well: "I believe the question is not one of safety for children but one of freedom for all of us." Senator Welborn was so shaken to think such action could take place in the United States of America, he immediately began formulating a resolution to introduce to the Michigan legislature to remove Judge Nicholich from the bench.

The state has claimed their only concern is the safety of the children who are being warned by a wood-burning stove. The state's own inconsistency proved them wrong. They allow the Amish to use wood-burning stoves in their schools. It seems logical to assume both Amish and Baptist would face the same adversity when exposed to fire. Second, if the children were truly unsafe the State would have stopped the operation of the school. The State only arrested the pastor and put him in jail. They left the school open.

The first 24 hours following Lee's sentencing showed the organization and power of fundamental, Bible-believing Baptists in the State of Michigan. Pastor Clay Nettle, senior pastor of the large Fruitport Baptist Church, moved to Battle Creek, took over the pastoral duties of Pastor Lee at Liberty Baptist Church and organized the all-out push to gain Lee's release from jail. Senator Welborn pushed the battle from the senate floor that same night in Lansing. A delegation was received by Governor Milliken's key advisors. An envoy was sent personally to Washington to talk with President Reagan. Dr. Little, the vice-president of Christian Law Association flew in from Texas. Attorney David Gibbs, a courtroom legend in defending the separation of Church and State, was here in less than 24 hours.

Members and friends of Liberty Baptist Church gathered at 8:00 p.m. Tuesday for prayer for the release of their pastor. At approximately 8:30 p.m. a messenger entered the church and declared that Pastor Lee had just been released from jail and was on his way home. Even though Judge Nicholich suspended Lee's sentence after less than 24 hours in jail, the battle is not over. It is just beginning in Michigan. If you don't believe me ask Levi Wisner who went to jail to restore religious liberty to Ohio. Ask Rev. Roger Voegtlin who went to jail in Indiana for the same offense. Ask Wayne Dillabough, a pastor jailed in Wisconsin over the same issue. We only named the states which surround us. Our war with Secular Humanism is well underway. The Bible-believing Fundamentalist pastor is Secular Humanism's greatest enemy, apart from Almighty God. (adv.)

ABWA News

The Grayling Charter Chapter of ABWA met on Tuesday, April 14th at the Arrowhead Inn. The meeting was called to order by Norma Naur, president and the Invocation was given by Phyllis Sauter.

The members enjoyed a very nice meal of ham, smoked pork chops, baked potatoes, rolls and a salad.

The speaker for the evening was Bill Klinger, Counselor for the Grayling High School. He spoke to the members about financial aid for education, and how and when to obtain it. Mr. Klinger spoke of the need for juniors in high school to take the A.C.T. test and start looking for and applying for scholarships. There are many scholarships and grants students can get. Some have to be paid back and some are free. In any case it is best to apply as early as possible.

The members were also brought up to date on the status of Boss Night, which is being held at the Red Barn on May 1st, the rummage sale for the Milltown Festival; a possible booth for the Festival; and new ideas for the fall fashion show. Betty Bennett gave the Benediction and the meeting was adjourned.

Chet Atkins at Kirtland May 1st

Chet Atkins, Country—Western Headliner, at Kirtland Community College, May 1st.

Chet Atkins, guitarist extraordinaire, songwriter, and Vice-President of RCA Record's Nashville operations, will perform at Kirtland Community College on Friday, May 1 at 8:00 P.M. Tickets are still available for the concert. General admission tickets are $8.00. Senior Citizen tickets are $5.00. Tickets are now on sale at Kirtland's Bookstore, available at the door, and Roscommon Hardware.

Chet Atkins has had a long, celebrated career. He has gone from bleak poverty in East Tennessee to the heights of the music world. Chet has played guitar in command performances at the Grand Old Opry, the Boston Pops, and the White House. He has mastered every musical form from bluegrass to Bach and has studied everything from classic to country.

Chet has "discovered," signed, produced and developed dozens of musical artists, including Eddy Arnold, Waylon Jennings, Charlie Pride, Dolly Parton, Dottie West and Perry Como. John S. Wilson in the "New York Times" claims that Chet Atkins "epitomizes the change in country music more than anyone else in Nashville. He has been highly influential in making country music what it is today."

House Call: Over-Medication

Drug abuse is not just a young people's problem. It's also a threat to Michigan's 1.3 million senior citizens—only in their instance it's called over-medication. Although over-medication is rarely deliberate, the consequences can increase the problem of the aging process and reduce the enjoyment of life.

Double-dosing is one of the dangers, and it's easy to do. Many older people take medicine for hypertension, arthritis, heart problems, and other conditions. Their bottles of tablets and capsules rest on a tray on the kitchen table, in the bathroom, or near a favorite chair.

With so many medications to be taken it's easy to forget if they're all taken on schedule. Some people, in doubt, might take two of the same within a short time, and this is double-dosing.

Over-medication also can occur when a patient has more than one doctor, and neither physician knows what the other is prescribing. Drugs often react upon one another, and cause their own problems, so be sure to tell each doctor what medicine you are taking.

Not all drug abuse occurs at home. Patients in nursing homes also face the threat of over-medication. Studies indicate that one in twenty senior citizens living in nursing homes may be suffering from temporary memory loss and confusion as a result of over-medication. This problem is hazardous to the patients, and it's expensive to the taxpayers.

In order to alleviate this problem of over-medication of the elderly, something new has been created. The Michigan Office of Substance Abuse Services (OSAS) and the Office of Services to the Aging have collaborated on the program that is gaining momentum. They have prepared material for use by pharmacists in different parts of the state who talk with senior citizens about over-medication. It's a simple checklist that helps patients keep track of the medicine they are taking.

The problem is great and the solution is simple. You can make your own chart at home, listing times and medications, and stay on course. We don't always know when drugs are affecting us adversely, so handle them with care. Be accurate, take drugs only as prescribed, and let them work for you, not against you.

Change Hands

Colonies in the Caribbean have known little of continuity. St. Lucia, for example, changed hands between the French and the British 14 times, according to National Geographic. St. Lucia is now independent.

Kirtland To Present 'Barefoot in the Park'

"Barefoot in the Park," the Spring production at Kirtland Community College, is a Neil Simon comedy out of the 1960's. Among its credits are the careers of Jane Fonda and Robert Redford, who both got a boost as a result of their efforts with this production.

"Barefoot in the Park," is the story of a newly married couple, Paul and Corie Bratter, who seek the privacy of a fifth floor apartment in a brownstone building, hoping that five flights of stairs will discourage visits from some very strange neighbors. A Mr. Velasco, seems strange, but his eloquence and fast talking gain him Corie's confidence and he becomes a major part of the excitement throughout the rest of the play.

Corie's mother, a widow, is a nice looking woman for her age, and Corie can't resist giving her a little shove. However, her scheme backfires in a way she never dreamed possible.

Performances will be on April 24th and 25th at 8 p.m. in the Kirtland Theatre. Tickets will be on sale for $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students and Senior Citizens. They can be purchased at the KCC bookstore, Roscommon Hardware, and the Holiday Inn of Grayling, and at the door.

No Crime

Liechtenstein has no natural resources, yet its people's income is among the highest in the world, reports National Geographic. And unemployment, inflation, crime, and pollution are virtually unknown in this tiny country in the heart of the Alps.

Six buildings, a movie, + $5,500

What do six log buildings and the movie MASH have in common? The answer is $5,500.

The buildings have to be moved by May 1st, from their present site at Fisherman's Paradise Resort, on the south shore of Houghton Lake, to the Houghton Lake Historical Society's Museum, next to the Chamber of Commerce's Playhouse. The buildings will eventually be used to house a small village depicting early settlements in the Houghton Lake area.

The hit movie M.A.S.H., starring Donald Sutherland, Elliott Gould, JoAnn Pflug, Robert DuVall, Sally Kellerman, and the famous Radar

O'Reilly played by Gary Burghoff, will be played at the Pines Theater for three nights as a fund raising activity.

The fund raiser is being sponsored by the Houghton Lake Merchants Association. Cost of tickets to the film are $2 each, and are tax deductible. The film will be shown April 27, 28, and 29th. The doors will open at 6:30 p.m. nightly, with local entertainment starting at 7 p.m. and the film rolling at 7:30 p.m.

Advance tickets can be purchased at the Pines Theater, or by contacting Pat Arensburg at 366-7443, Dorothy Weyburn at 366-8693, or Mel Bankov at 366-5608.

DR. JAMES SMOLKO of Central Michigan University entertains secretaries and their bosses during the Secretary Week luncheon last week at the Holiday Inn of Grayling. (Don Geiss Photo).

Bosses took their secretaries to lunch last week at the Holiday Inn of Grayling and the group was treated to an outstanding piano recital by two Central Michigan University musicians.

In recognition of National Secretary Week April 19-25, about 200 persons turned out for the luncheon. Mrs. Marie Willse served as an emcee for the second year in a row while Ms. Helen Malandrinos spoke for the employers and Ms. Siegrid Schramm replied for the secretaries.

Mrs. Malandrinos said that behind every manager there is a devoted secretary. She commented that it is the most significant partnership that is shared. She said, "When you initial our correspondence, you are sharing our responsibility."

Grayling Mayor Sandy Thompson read a proclamation from the city in recognition of National Secretary Week.

With the speeches over, Drs. Forrest Robinson and James Smolko proceeded to entertain the audience with a selection of works of popular composers.

Mrs. Hertha Laupmanis, innkeeper, said that the luncheon was its usual popular success and served its purpose in permitting the employers to recognize their valuable assistants.

Construction Industry to Be Aided By Retirement Funds

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

State Treasurer Loren Monroe has put forth a plan to use about $80 million in retirement system funds to provide financing for new home construction in Michigan.

Under the proposal, the money is to be funneled through banks and savings and loan associations to purchase blocks of mortgages from home builders.

Monroe said he is embarking on the new plan because high interest rates have stalled new home construction. "Our initiation of this program will provide builders with the necessary financing for new construction. It will provide lenders with money to loan potential home buyers," he said.

He noted homeowners will find it easier to get mortgage money and the state employees retirement system will, meanwhile, get a "handsome" return on an insured certificate.

The retirement system will get a net return of 13.7 percent if the loans are held to the Maximum 30-year period.

The lenders (banks and savings and loan associations) will pay the state 12.875 percent interest and the issues will be guaranteed by the Mortgage Guarantee Insurance Corporation.

Lenders would, in turn, be allowed to add one fourth of a percentage point as a handling fee when providing the funds for home builders.

The money is to be used to finance single-family, owner-occupies property, with a maximum loan for any one mortgage at $125,000.

Some 75 banks and savings and loans have agreed to handle the mortgages.

Monroe said he expected all $80 million to be committed within a few months. Four separate issues of $20 million each will be authorized.

Treasury department officials have discussed the program with the state's Investment Advisory Committee, which oversees investments of retirement funds, and Monroe said he did not expect that group to disapprove the mortgage program.

Stan Arnold of the state Building and Construction Trades Council welcomed the state's action saying it would prod home construction and get the industry moving again.

Governor William G. Milliken also praised the program saying it makes good sense to use Michigan money to solve Michigan problems.

Prison Overcrowding Act To Be Invoked
Governor Milliken is expected to soon use the new prison overcrowding act to ease dangerous prison populations in state institutions.

Corrections Department Director Perry Johnson said it has become obvious that actions would have to be taken under the act to reduce the populations.

Prison population has been over the 12,874 capacity for more than 30 days—the factor which makes the overcrowding act take effect.

Once an overcrowding emergency is requested by the Corrections Commission, the governor will have 15 days to either declare the emergency or hold the commission was incorrect.

When an emergency is declared the minimum sentences of all prisoners—except those serving life terms—will be reduced by 90 days.

Between 900 to 1,000 prisoners could be released as a result of reducing sentences, a process that could take as long as 60 days to finalize.

AND THE WINNER IS... Darcie McCurdy, Grayling Cooperative Nursery student, reaches in to pull the lucky winner's name in the school's drawing held last week. Other students are shown helping out. The winner of $100 worth of groceries was Bill Johnson of Frederic.

Coop Nursery students sold 800 tickets to buy school equipment and to pay for building improvements.

Second and third prize winners were Edna Close of Roscommon and R. Butzin of Grayling. Both got Easter hams. (Joe Schrader photo)

Chamber Manager Swift To Attend Detroit Show

Gaylord—The Northeast Michigan Economic Development Association (NEMEDA) will be exhibiting at the 1981 International Tool & Manufacturing Engineering Conference & Exposition at Cobo Hall in Detroit April 27-30. Seven hundred manufacturers will also exhibit. The show is expected to attract over 28,000 manufacturing executives and other industrialists from throughout the U.S. and many other countries.

The expo will allow the Association to expose a large part of the industrial community to Northeast Michigan according to William Mears, Director of NEMEDA.

"This show actually kicks off NEMEDA's overall marketing campaign", Mr. Mears said, "The campaign will include participation in another trade show in Canada, national advertising on a monthly basis, U.S. and Canadian mass mailings, and brochure publications."

An important feature of the SME show booth is that it will be staffed by representatives from many Northeast Michigan Communities. Representatives include: A. J. Doherty and Jack Winters of Clare, Bob Forsyth of Standish, Bob Dillenbeck of Lewiston, Roger Jackson, Lowell Thomas and Glen Highfield of Tawas City, Ron Beebe of Midland, Duane Swift of Grayling, Bill Utt of Atlanta, Tom Gossens of Hillman, Fred Bird of Rose City, Ed Calkins and John Mankowski of Gaylord, Casey Cohen of Alpena, Tom Dygert of Harrison, and Lois Wehrmeister, Carol Lee and Norm Detrich of Mio.

The Juncos are with us now, the Grouse are drumming, and the trees show some signs of bud swelling in anticipation of that miracle called spring. All around us the evident is clear despite brief relapses into winter-like weather. In the snow-matted pine needles along the trail to the Virgin Pines, the oval, leathery leaves of the Trailing Arbutus show their green. Closer inspection from the hands-and-knees level reveals buds which are swelled to near opening. Over the years, their punctuality has been amazing. Each year they bloom within a few days either way of the same date with full bloom here at the Hartwick Pines coming during the first week of May.

The Trailing Arbutus is one of Michigan's protected wildflowers meaning that it is against the law to pick it. It was picked into near extinction at one time, but it is now making a slow comeback in areas where suitable growing conditions exist. If you have missed the Arbutus and would like to reacquaint yourself with this five-petaled pink or white flower with the exquisite fragrance, come out to see us.

His Waite Will Be Rewarded by Degrees

Ron Waite probably commutes farther than any other Saginaw Valley State College student. Most of the college's 3,800 commuters live within an hour's drive of the campus between Bay City and Saginaw. But twice each week Waite makes a two hundred mile round trip from his Grayling home to SVSC, where he's a senior with a double major in social work and sociology.

Waite came to the attention of school officials during the SVSC's late January flu epidemic. Classes were temporarily cancelled because the college Health Services office was overloaded with flu patients. Twenty-five area radio and television stations were notified. SVSC personnel felt confident that all their students would get the message.

But there was one small problem for Ron Waite. Grayling radio station WQON wasn't contacted, as SVSC officials had no idea that students commuted from that far away.

"I wasn't aware that the problem existed when I left for home after classes that Wednesday," Waite recalls. He normally doesn't have class on Friday, but a special session had been scheduled for that week.

"I made special arrangements with my boss to get off work Friday and come to class," he says. So he drove a hundred miles, came up to the classroom building and saw signs on the door saying there were no classes. "I went into the library and they told me to go to Information Services. John Rummel, director of information services, was very sympathetic."

Waite, who graduates in May, has been commuting since January, 1978. He lived in Bridgeport for awhile and was working at the Saginaw Valley Rehabilitation Center. He qualified for civil service and worked at the Flint halfway house. Then the opportunity came to work with juveniles for the Department of Social Services in Grayling, and he took it.

Waite carries a tight schedule. Besides working a 45 hour per week job which includes regular overtime, he must schedule an additional fifteen hours weekly in another social work agency. That is to fulfill course requirements. Weekends are devoted to catching up on sleep and homework.

"About the only thing that really bothers me," Waite notes, "is that we have a little girl and I can't spend as much time with her as I'd like."

Claiming he doesn't get the highway blues, Waite says, "I browse through my lecture notes if I've got a test. I look at the wildlife on the median and turn the radio up.

"On the way home, I've gotten in the habit of stopping every little while—whether I have to or not. I bring a sack lunch and eat that on the way home. There's a state of mind involved here," he notes. "I have a commitment toward my classes. I'm paying the bucks. I deserve all I can get. I just tell myself I have to get down here."

Waite has had only one bad experience while driving. "Last summer," he recalls, "I took a full load of classes—I hadn't had summer classes before and figured I'd give them a try. One day I woke up on the median and said, 'that's it.' I dropped all my classes that term."

If he has any regrets about his long drives, they center around his view of what the campus community should be. "I think commuters should take part in student activities," he says. "They're part of the campus, too. Even if they live a hundred miles away."

Senior Citizen Homemaker Service

Edna Babbitt, our first homemaker is having a health problem at this time, so we now have a new homemaker, Dorothy McNeill, and she is very hard working efficient and really loves working with our Senior Citizens. We are very sorry to lose Edna, she is truly loved by her Clients. But I am sure that you will agree that her health comes first. We feel very fortunate to find Dorothy to replace her and we hope that you will feel the same way. Now that we have her we have several openings on Thursday and Friday. Therefore if you need our services or know of anyone that does, please call me at the Senior Citizen Center (348-9314) or come in and see us and join us in our Congregate Dining Room for lunch. We are located at 308 Lawndale. We would love to meet you. We have beautiful and delicious nutritious meals at the price of only ($1.35) for a full course meal including coffee and dessert. This price is for Senior Citizens only, under 60 the price is ($2.50) per person.

I would like to thank all of our Clients that have donated to our Homemakers Services Program. We certainly do appreciate these donations since the program could not continue without them, due to the drastic State and Federal cuts.

All Crawford County Citizens over 60 years of age or older and have a health problem, such as illness, injury, arthritis, or other handicaps that prevents you from doing the necessary homemaking chores, such as vacuuming, dishwashing, dusting, making beds and light laundry. This program also provides limited transportation services, such as taking you grocery shopping, doctor appointments, and having prescriptions filled. If you are able to take Dial-A-Ride you should utilize this service, since this is much less expensive.

There is no specific charge for this service, however, if you can afford to pay, we do expect donations. This allows us to do more services for more handicapped people. We also have a Government Fee Scale for your guidance and convenience.

Please let us know if you need our Services. We would love to help you.

Strolling Around Town

By Fay Bovee

It took only one Saturday, April 17, for the demise of the Harry McEvers' home on Maple Street. The Jack Millikin crew had the whole thing leveled by late afternoon. What a strange looking empty space! All up and down Michigan Avenue the residents have been cleaning up their yards. The former Laurent home has been undergoing some remodeling, the new residents have taken down some old unsightly cedar trees, and are planting a new lawn. Over on Lawndale, there are several places that are doing some extensive lawn work between the new curbs and sidewalk. Up on Maple Street, in the 600 block, Brian Dunkley has purchased a house and is doing much remodeling there. We enjoy seeing some of the younger residents fixing up the old places.

Bouquets of all of the people who are sprucing up their homes for summer and onions to those who don't care. The Beautification Committee have plans underway to make the approach into Grayling more attractive and to capitalize on the natural beauty of the river.

Grayling Elementary School News

By Heather Watts, Jill Brackenbury & Kelly Springer

Miss Williams' kindergarten has a girl named Gretchen Dice. She is going to see her aunt in Florida for Easter vacation.

Miss Williams' kindergarten has a boy named Robert Smoke who was on a bulldozer with his father, Mr. Smoke. The bulldozer slipped on a piece of ice and jumped up. Robert fell off and his knee went under the brace. Robert got a cast put on, but now he's all right.

In Mrs. Slater's kindergarten class they made Easter bunnies out of paper. To decorate the bunnies they used markers. They also made paper baskets. To decorate the basket they colored them with crayons. They painted eggs by taking a Q-tip & dipping them into dye & putting it on their egg. Inside the paper basket they put fake grass.

Miss Wargo's second grade colored Easter pictures. After they colored them they put them on the bulletin board. They also drew Easter pictures and colored on their playhouse in their room. Jenny Kreitner is taking her test to go into level 6. (In an interview with Jenny Kreitner and Andy Moore).

Mrs. McEvers' fourth grade is running to Atlanta, Georgia. This is the third year that they have run to Atlanta. The way they're taking is 920 miles. Everyone runs around a measured lap so that 20 laps equal one mile. These laps are on the side of our playground. They are jogging during recess times. The reason they chose this city is because they are reading about Atlanta, Georgia, in their social studies.

CARD OF THANKS

Hats off to our Grayling Fire Dept. Lee & "Dee" Crull would like to Thank our Grayling Fire Dept. for their expert & fast service in our need of help, when our chimney caught on fire...Of all days Easter...afterwards we offered them coffee," (1/2 cup they got.) Thanks to a great bunch of guys for saving our home. You guys are the greatest.

Hear the Band

by Terri Fijolek

As you probably know, the annual Spring Play is in progress. As usual, students from the band are playing in the orchestra. Mr. Harris is leading the band on coronet. Joining him will be Rob Priestap on trombone, Gerry Johnson on clarinet, Dean Wallison on drums and Shirley Gravelyn on oboe. We've been working on this for a couple of weeks now and feel that it will be a big success. We hope you can all come to see the play.

The band members were measured this week for our new summer uniforms. We feel these uniforms are going to be a big boost for the band. We'll have them for the summer.

Mr. Harris has received letters and pamphlets from various band camps for students to attend. The University of Michigan and Central Michigan University have both sent letters to the band for a camp. We are seriously considering these and hope to attend at least one of them.

Don't forget our concert on May 14th!

GET 'RED CARPET' CARE—Youngsters from the Crawford-Ausable Day Care Center received the 'royal treatment' from the Mercy Hospital staff when they visited the medical facility last Tuesday.

Shown here during their stop at the emergency room, the kids learned about the special care given there by E. R. nurses (foreground) and from Dr. Steffe (background).

Their tour of the hospital included visits to a number of other departments and ended with a treat in the cafeteria. (Joe Schrader photo)

Editor
Crawford County Avalanche
Grayling, Michigan

I was pleased to read in "From Our Corner" your comments regarding the tax proposal which will be voted on May 19th.

I have been corresponding with State Senator Robert Young, Assistant Minority Leader, regarding the proposal. Senator Young is one of eight senators voting against the proposal. On April 24th I will be in Lansing as a member of the Board of Directors for the Michigan Townships Association. I expect additional data regarding the proposal to be available at that time. In addition the Association Board of Directors will probably make the position of the Association known.

Currently I am of the opinion that the proposal does not even come close to the type of property tax reform a majority of the people are looking for. It is my belief to many in Lansing expect the voters to accept anything in the name of "Tax Reform".

Prior to the May 19th election I plan to let the public know my final decision on how I will vote on the issue and my reasons for doing so.

Sincerely
B. J. Fowler, Supervisor
Grayling Township

Editor's Mailbox

Dear Whitney and Citizens of Crawford County,

Many people have accused me of not knowing what I was talking about in regard to the Michigan Education Assessment test scores which were printed March 12th. J. Meredith stated that the test results I gave were false, or in other words, I was a liar. Recently, I've been branded as an emotional, uninformed, anti-educational joker.

Please, let me set the record straight. The test results I gave were furnished by a school board member. They also were the first set of test scores. The definition of 75% as a satisfactory level was also furnished by the school board member. If 75% is satisfactory, then it's logical that anything below 75% is unsatisfactory as I reported. The school board member received his information and explanation from a school official.

It appears to me that there are many people, including school board members, who do not have a full understanding of the test results, or were they not fully informed?

The purpose of my letter was to awaken the community to other educational problems, not only the new Middle School. It is also evident that the citizens of Crawford County will not be intimidated or hood-winked anymore. It is time for a change. Who has driven the people to such extremes as witnessed by the recent articles in the Avalanche?

Public officials and school officials have one job and one job only; serve the wishes of the community. When they do not respect this right and take the attitude of "I'll tell you what's good for you", it's time for a change.

Sincerely,
John Medler

To Scotty Hale:

Scotty, I am a total stranger to you, but I have been a basketball fan of yours for the last several years and I felt that someone should reply to your public letter in the Editor's Mailbox explaining your absence from the remaining games of the Viking Basketball schedule. I am sure many of your friends and relatives read and appreciated your explanation.

My wife and I saw many of your fine performances on the court and I must say, you provided both of us with many pleasurable and exciting moments with your style of play. We both think you were an asset to the Viking Team in many ways, and we missed your participation in the final games.

We think your play in the games that we saw was anything but 'pathetic', and I believe the younger ones still look up to you. I hope one 'pathetic' doesn't alter or sway your opinion of us older folks. Many of us are still fans of yours.

Perhaps, the act of walking off the court prior to the basketball game was poor judgement on your part, but in all fairness, it may have been the most logical thing for a young person to do, when his or her pride has been injured by a person that they trusted or looked up to. Especially for an athlete who believes he or she has been putting forth a 100% effort.

As you journey through life Scotty, you will encounter many word obstacles created by your acquaintances, fans, business associates and yes, your enemies. Remember the expression, "Every knock downward is a boost upward". Think of every knock-down as a foul shot that you can sink for another point for the home team.

More than likely, the Grayling residents will be hearing about and from Mr. Hale from time to time in the future...

Stay in the game, Scotty.

Q: IF I CAN GET A HIGHER RETURN FROM A MONEY MARKET FUND, WHY SHOULD I PUT MY MONEY IN FIRST SAVINGS?

A: INSURED SAFETY AND A GUARANTEED RETURN.

It's as simple as that. With a First Savings Money Market Certificate there's no risk. Your savings are insured up to $100,000. And the rate is guaranteed for the length of the certificate. With a Money Market Fund it's different. Your money's not insured, so there's always the chance you could lose it all. And in many money market funds the rate of return is not guaranteed. In some Money Market Funds, the rate changes daily. If the rate goes down so does your return. That's why it's important to check carefully before you invest. So the question is really not who pays a higher return today, but risk versus no risk. We think you'll feel a lot better with your savings in a First Savings "No Risk" Money Market Certificate.

situation in Poland is real," they said. "The feeling in Washington is that the Soviets represent a real threat to the Polish people."

The girls were able to visit Washington's scenic attractions during their free time, including the Supreme Court Building, Library of Congress, Smithsonian Institute branches, the Lincoln Memorial and Washington Monument. While there, they observed with interest a demonstration by citizens over the continued killings in Atlanta, Georgia.

The GHS seniors stayed at Marymount College in Arlington, Virginia, while attending the workshop.

When Jane and Bonnie visit Olivet, the emphasis will be on American local government. Lehti said participants set up a complete local government system as well as campaign for, and hold elections for public office in the mythical Michigan community of "Hamilton".

"Operation Bentley is an opportunity to experience the challenge of politics in action. Grayling is extremely fortunate to have its students selected for this valuable experience," Lehti stressed.

Juniors from 80 Michigan high schools are selected each year to participate. Dates for Operation Bentley are May 20-31.

A patient in the infirmary awoke after an operation and found the blinds of the room drawn. "Why are those blinds down, doctor?" he asked. "Well," said the physician, "there's a fire burning across the street and I didn't want you to wake up and think the operation had been a failure."
